Welcome Back to San Francisco

On behalf of the Local Arrangements Committee, welcome to San Francisco. Whether it is your first visit or your first visit this month, we are sure that you're going to find a happy diversion while you are here. Something unexpected as well as maybe a little something to take back home with you. We hope that you find our town as engaging as we do because we're always proud to show off for our guests.

Everything should be in order. We've shaken off the shroud of that unpleasant recession and now the construction cranes are sprouting like spring flowers all over town. With a resurgence of the local economy, new restaurants and a revitalized arts community have flourished. We've even cast a new set of jewels over the Bay Bridge.

So check the Meeting schedule for the events that you won't want to miss, make those hard to get reservations for the restaurants on the tip and prepare to see yourself in a new light, San Francisco Style.

San Francisco Help: AGLP App for Smart Phones

A new App for AGLP members is now available for download. If you use an iPad, iPhone, or other Smart Phone or portable wireless device you can access AGLP schedule information, the AGLP Membership Directory, and even the new AGLP online Journal of Gay and Lesbian Mental Health through your portable device.

To add this:

- On your smart phone, go to the App Store and search for "Memberclick" to download this app for free.
- To set up your connection, you will need the Organization Name: "aglp" (note: lower case only); your AGLP Username; and Password just like you use on the AGLP members area of the website.

Real time schedule information is updated constantly, as is the AGLP Member Directory. If you have any questions regarding this new feature, call Roy Harker at 215-498-0577 or email rharker@aglp.org.

Restaurants

You don't have to travel far to have a good meal in the Bay Area. San Franciscans love food and are just a wee bit opinionated about "the best." Rather than to attempt to survey all the restaurants that the Bay Area offers, we off you a few links to lists for top restaurants to get you started and as a teaser, Zagats Top 10 Restaurants for 2013.

On line lists:

Zagats Top 10 Restaurants for 2013

<http://blog.zagat.com/2012/10/the-10-best-restaurants-in-san.html>

No. 1: Gary Danko

Food: 29 Decor: 27 Service: 29 Cost: $110

It's "tough enough to get to No. 1 and even harder to stay there", but Gary Danko (the man and his "truly American classic" on the Wharf) "remains the reigning and undefeated champ" for Food, Service and Popularity in the Bay Area Survey, offering "the epitome of white-tablecloth fine dining" without the "stuckup feeling" via "exceptional", "flexible prix fixe" options and "marvelous" "custom pairings" of wine (plus an "astounding" cheese cart); it's all delivered in a "gorgeous"

"jewelbox" setting by a "most gracious" staff that "treats everyone like a millionaire", and naturally, it comes "at a price", but it's widely considered a "relative bargain" compared to other "temples of gastronomy." 800 N. Point St.; 415-749-2060

No. 2: French Laundry

Food: 29 Decor: 27 Service: 28 Cost: $297

"Words can't even describe" the "experience of a lifetime" say food lovers who've had the "thrill" of landing a reservation and making "the trek" to Thomas Keller's "culinary Everest" in Yountville where the "heavenly" New American-French tasting menus "feature ingredients treated with the utmost respect and care" and the "impeccable" service is "like a coordinated dance"; it's all "too precious" for some and wines cost "a fortune", but acolytes insist "you'll go to your grave (in a pauper's field) remembering this meal" and the "exquisite" "gardens outside the stone building." 6640 Washington St., Yountville; 707-944-2380

No. 3: Kiss Seafood

Food: 28 Decor: 18 Service: 25 Cost: $83

For the real thing" without the airfare, foodies trek to this "secret sushi spot" in Japantown where "divinely executed sushi" ("any fresher and you'd be eating underwater") and "amazingly authentic" omakase dinners are served in "living room"-sized digs; with only "12 seats" overseen by "the chef and his wife", it feels like an "honor to eat here" for guests who gush it's "well worth the money and the effort" and "virtually impossible not to leave happy." 1700 Laguna St.; 415-474-2866

No. 4: Seven Hills

Food: 28 Decor: 22 Service: 26 Cost: $47

"Creative" farm-to-table cuisine inspired by Rome (a seven-hilled city like SF) includes "amazing" "housemade giant raviolis" at this "darling", "intimate" Nob Hill trattoria that also offers an "interesting" selection of "well-priced" wines chosen by "two master sommeliers"; "the caliber of cooking is comparable to more expensive places", plus a "lively" noise level and "welcoming" servers help create a "friendly" atmosphere. 1550 Hyde St.; 415-775-1550

No. 5: Acquerello

Food: 28 Decor: 26 Service: 28 Cost: $98

When you're "in the most romantic of moods", this Polk Gulch "old-world" "shrine" "to haute cuisine à la Italia" is "superlative in every sense", from the "superior" wine list to the "very current" Italian prix fixe menus that are "perfection on a plate"; "well-dressed" patrons populate the "elegant", "hushed" setting in a former chapel, where "gracious" servers "anticipate" your "every need" ("the ballet should be this well choreographed"); and if it's undoubtedly "expensive", "who could put a price" on such an "exquisite" experience?

1722 Sacramento St.; 415-567-5432

No. 6: Erna's Elderberry House

Food: 28 Decor: 28 Service: 28 Cost: $96

"Anyone visiting Yosemite" "must" stop by this Oakhurst "special- occasion" spot for a "taste of Europe in the Sierras" by way of the "fantastic" New French-Californian prix fixes often proffered by the "charming" "Erna herself" in an "elegant" "fairytale" setting; it's "very expensive", but "nothing compares" for miles around, and if you stay overnight at the "adjacent chateau", Sunday brunch is "exquisite" too. Chateau du Sureau, 48688 Victoria Ln. (Hwy. 41), Oakhurst; 559-683-6800

No. 7: Marinus

Food: 28 Decor: 28 Service: 27 Cost: $93

Way beyond the typical "hotel restaurant", this Carmel Valley "gem" at Bernardus Lodge boasts a "beautiful" setting and "inviting" revamped decor as a backdrop for Cal Stamenov's "impeccable" Cal-New French menus that "push the envelope" while pleasing vegetarians, localavores and omnivores alike; service is "top-of-the-line" and the wine list is "staggering" (with "prices to match"), so overall it's "well worth the trip for a special occasion" and even better to "stay the night so you can savor every glass." Bernardus Lodge, 415 W. Carmel Valley Rd., Carmel Valley; 831-658-3595

No. 8: Kokkari Estiatorio

Food: 28 Decor: 27 Service: 27 Cost: $59

"Politicos", "power execs" and "special-occasion" celebrants frequent this "happening" Downtown Greek for "incredible" cuisine featuring "impressive" meats spit-roasted on an open fire and "to-die-for" desserts, all brought by a "talented staff"; a "beautiful" dining room and "always-busy bar" that "retain the warmth and coziness of a taverna" add to what fans deem a "grand" "fine-dining experience" — with "a price tag that matches" (it's "worth the splurge"). 200 Jackson St.; 415-981-0983

No. 9: Sierra Mar

Food: 28 Decor: 29 Service: 27 Cost: $93

Diners have their heads in the clouds, almost literally, as they gaze out over the "seemingly infinite horizon" through the "floor-to- ceiling windows" of this "exclusive" locale perched "on the edge of a cliff overlooking the ocean" in Big Sur's Post Ranch Inn; voted the Bay Area's No. 1 for Decor, it's a truly "amazing setting" for "sensational" Cal-Eclectic meals paired with "world-class" wines, but while "the view is priceless" and service is "outstanding", tabs match the sky-high location. Post Ranch Inn, (30 mi. south of Carmel) Hwy. 1, Big Sur; 831-667-2200

No. 10: Evvia

Food: 28 Decor: 25 Service: 26 Cost: $55

The "upscale Greek cuisine" at this "top tier" Palo Alto (little sis of SF's Kokkari) is "blessed by the gods of Mount Olympus" cheer fans touting the "otherworldly" lamb, "expertly grilled fish" and other "succulent" specialties, all delivered via "friendly", "engaging" servers; its "lively atmosphere is pleasure-enhancing" too, and though it gets "noisy and densely packed in" at "prime hours", most agree it's "always a favorite — especially if someone else is picking up the tab." 420 Emerson St., Palo Alto; 650-326-0983

Moscone West - Level 3 Room 3000

Director: Petros Levounis, M.D., Faculty: Jack Drescher, M.D., Mary Barber, M.D., and Jennifer C. Pizer, J.D.

This course provides the general psychiatrist with essential tools for LGBT affirmative treatment. The course is organized in four sections which cover basic concerns that affect LGBT populations, including: 1) coming out, heterosexist attitudes, and the 'don't ask, don't tell' mentality; 2) legal issues, 3) gay parenting, and 4) sexual identity in patient-therapist relationships. Case studies with different DSM diagnoses will illuminate the impact of LGBT identity and illustrate ways of working with each patient.

Gay, African American, and Los Angeles Native artist Kehinde Wiley in his newest art exhibit, The World Stage: Israel, is currently being featured at San Francisco's Contemporary Jewish Museum. Wiley's work is multi-faceted and contemplates complex issues in a bold way. With a homoerotic twist, Wiley paints chiseled images of black men which maintain a, "sense of dignity in each pose," Wiley told 429Magazine. Each model is painted standing in front of an eccentric background of colorful and symbolic images of Ethiopian and Israeli derived backdrops.

Moscone West - Level 3, Room 3001 Moscone Convention Center

"Don't Ask Don't Tell" was a United States policy that ended in September of 2011. While instated and even after, it has had negative effects on homosexuals serving in the military. Mental health care workers need to understand how this policy has affected both those serving as well as their families. This presentation will explore the effects of DADT from several viewpoints. Service members' stories will be shared through a photojournalism project of photos and oral interviews with service members affected by the military's ban on homosexuals serving. This constitutes an ethnographic record of these service members' stories that is a window into the broader mental health concerns of the population. A professional narrative will help attendees understand how policy changes came about and explain ways to identify and treat lasting scars. Other discussants will share personal accounts as well as contrast our military to those in other countries.

Two of the presenters share especially poignant perspectives. Vincent Cianni is a photographer with recent subject matter focusing on "Don't Ask Don't Tell". <http://vincentcianni.com/>. LT Donald Bramer was a recent speaker at one of Vincent's openings and will be giving his personal account of how the policy change has affected him.

The United States is home to a growing population of asylum seekers and refugees. They often present with complex PTSD and have specialized mental health needs and challenges. This multi-disciplinary symposium, with a focus on LGBT refugees and asylum seekers, presents state of the art clinical guidelines and empirical research on the mental health needs of this vulnerable and underserved population. Papers include: (1) Guidelines for the mental health and forensic assessment of LGBT asylum seekers; (2) Mental health assessment and treatment of refugees who escape war torn countries; (3) Assessment and treatment of unaccompanied children refugees; and (4) Empirical data from a pioneering study of the mental health impact of immigration detention on LGBT asylum seekers.
